ATTORNEY SUSPENDED

On February 12, 2008, the Tennessee Supreme Court temporarily suspended the law license of Glenn Erikson, pursuant to Section 14 of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9. The Board of Professional Responsibility petitioned the Court to suspend Erikson's law license in light of Erikson's plea of guilty to one count of Wire Fraud Affecting a Financial Institution in violation of 18 USC §1343.

The Supreme Court further ordered the Board of Professional Responsibility to institute a formal proceeding to determine the extent of final discipline to be imposed as a result of the conviction. Mr. Erikson was ordered to fully comply with the provisions of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, Section 18, which require, in part, the notification of all clients by registered or certified mail, all co-counsel, all opposing counsel and opposing parties without counsel of the Supreme Court's order suspending him. Section 18 also requires Erikson to deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.

This suspension shall remain in effect until it is dissolved or amended by order of the Supreme Court of Tennessee.
