

Supreme Court of Tennessee

Administrative Office of the Courts
Nashville, Tennessee 37219

www.tncourts.gov

ELIZABETH A. SYKES
Director

TIM D. TOWNSEND
Deputy Director

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 30, 2009

Contact: Laura Click
615-532-6047 (office)

Tennessee Judicial Conference Foundation Awards Scholarships

Nashville, Tenn. – The Tennessee Judicial Conference Foundation has awarded seven $1,000 scholarships to students attending each of the four law schools in the state of Tennessee. The following students received $1,000 scholarships from the Foundation for the 2009-2010 school year:

Heather Graves - Judge Houston M. Goddard Scholarship

University of Tennessee College of Law
Hometown: Murfreesboro, Tennessee

Bryan Hathorn - Robert W. Ritchie Scholarship

University of Tennessee College of Law
Hometown: Maine, New York

Tyler Hagenbuch - Judge Frank F. Drowota, III Scholarship

Vanderbilt University Law School
Hometown: Ottawa, Illinois

Joshua D. Hankins - Judge Joseph S. Daniel Scholarship

Nashville School of Law
Hometown: Nashville, Tennessee

Sheila Freeze - Suzanne G. Keith Scholarship

Nashville School of Law
Hometown: Manchester, Tennessee

Omar Malik - Judge William H. Williams Scholarship

University of Memphis School of Law
Hometown: Memphis, Tennessee

Anne B. Davis - Dr. Benjamin Hooks Scholarship

University of Memphis School of Law
Hometown: Memphis, Tennessee

The Tennessee Judicial Conference Foundation was established in 1995 by the membership of the Tennessee Judicial Conference, which consists of all state trial and appellate judges. The Foundation was created to award need-based scholarships to students attending law school in Tennessee. The Foundation is funded largely through gifts and pledges from members of the Tennessee judiciary.