FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 9, 2011

Contact: Laura Click
615-532-6047 (office)
615-440-2555 (cell)

MEDIA ADVISORY:
Supreme Court Justice to Present Scholarship to Lincoln Memorial University Law Student

Knoxville, Tenn. – The National Association of Women Judges (NAWJ) will award Tammy Crayne, a student at the Lincoln Memorial University-Duncan School of Law, with its Equal Justice Scholarship. Tennessee Supreme Court Justice Sharon G. Lee, who serves as district director of the NAWJ, will present the $1,000 scholarship to Crayne.

Crayne was chosen to receive a $1,000 scholarship based upon her sustained and passionate commitment to the achievement of equality of opportunity and access in the system of justice. This scholarship is possible through the support of Lieff, Cabraser, Heimann and Bernstein, LLP, one of NAWJ’s top level Landmark sponsors.

Crayne will be presented the scholarship during a luncheon honoring the Tennessee Supreme Court hosted by the East Tennessee Lawyers Association for Women. Chief Justice Cornelia A. Clark will be the keynote speaker for the event.

WHO: Justice Sharon Lee, Chief Justice Cornelia Clark
WHAT: The National Association of Women Judges Equal Access to Justice Scholarship presentation to a Lincoln Memorial University-Duncan School of Law student.
WHEN: Wednesday, May 11, 2011 at 12 p.m.
WHERE: The Foundry
747 World’s Fair Park Drive
Knoxville, TN 37902

# #